Dear Parent, Guardian or Family Member:

This year your child’s teacher has been teaching lessons in theater, dance, and visual arts. These lessons combine learning about art with learning about reading.

Your child’s teacher shared information about these lessons with you this year. This information included the name of a lesson, what your child learned and things you can do at home to help your child learn about art and reading. You might have seen this information in a parent letter from your student’s teacher. Your child’s teacher might have talked to you about this.

Help us understand what you think about art and reading in the classroom. Please answer the questions below. Your answers are anonymous – no one will know who you are from your answers. You do not have to answer these questions if you do not want to. Please return this survey to your child’s teacher by May 23, 2011.

Did you get information about art lessons in your child’s classroom this year? (check one box)
- Yes
- No
- I don’t know

Did you understand the information about the art lessons? (check one box)
- I understood the information easily
- I understood the information
- I did not understand the information
- I did not understand the information at all
- I don’t remember getting information

Do you think it is important for your child to learn about the arts in school? (check one box)
- Learning about the arts is very important
- Learning about the arts is important
- Learning about the arts is not important
- Learning about the arts is not important at all

Does it help your child to learn when they study reading and art at the same time? (check one box)
- This really helps my child learn
- This might help my child learn
- This might not help my child learn
- This will not help my child learn at all

Is there anything else you want to share about your child and how they learn about art and reading? (write a comment on the back of this sheet)

Thank you for answering these questions. If you have questions about this survey contact Meg Babcock, Arts Impact Coordinator at 1-800-664-4549 ext. 7942 or mbabcock@psesd.org. Please return this survey to your child’s teacher by May 23, 2011.